THE GAZETTE.

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 1, 1858.

THE BIRTH AND BIRTHPLACE OF WASHINGTON. George Washington was born on the 22d

February, 1732, just 126 years ago. His birth place was situated at Bridge's Creek, in Westmoreland county, Virginia, in the North-eastern section of the State, about a half mile from the junction of Pope's creek with the Potemac. The bomestead has long Reynolds. since passed away, and left not a wreck behind having been destroyed previous to the Revolution. A stone was placed on the site in or shortly before the year 1845, by the late George Washington Parke Custis, the grandson of Mrs. Washington. It bore the simple inscription:
"Here, on the 11th Feb., (O. S.) 1732,

GEORGE WASHINGTON Was bo D."

"The spot," says a writer, "is of deep interest, not only from its associations, but also from its natural beauties. It commands a view of the Maryland shore; of the Potomac. one of the most majestic of rivers, and of its course for many miles towards Chesapeake Bay. The house was a low-pitched, singlestoried frame building, with lour rooms on the first floor, and an enormous chimney at each end on the outside. This was the style of the better sort of houses in those days, and they are still occasionally seen in the old settlements of Virginia."

In How's "Historical Collections of Virginin," (page 509) there is an engraved fac simile of the record of Washington's birth, t .ken from the family record in the Bible, which belonged to his mother, by whom the original entry is supposed to have been made This old family Bible and precious relic is or was in the pussession of George Washington Bassett, esq., of Farmington, Hanover county, Va., who married a grand niece of Wash ington. It is in quarto form, much d.lapidated by age, with title page missing, and covered by the striped Virginia clota anciently much used. The following is the record:

"George Washington, son to Augustine Washington and Mary, his wife, was born the 11th day of February, 1732, about 10 in the morning, and was baptized the 30th of April following. Mr. Beverly Whitnev and Captain Christopher Brooks, godfathers, and Mrs. Mildred Gregory, godmother."

Westmoreland county has been styled "the Athens of Virginia," as many of her most renowned sons were born within its borders. In the glorious catalogue are found the names of Washington, Richard Henry Lee and his three brothers, Thomas, Francis and Arthur, Gen. Henry Lee, Monroe and Judge Bushrod Washington .- Charleston Courier.

DEPARTURE OF THE PRINCESS ROY-AL FOR BERLIN.

The Princess Royal of England and wife of Prince Frederick William of Prussia, bade farewell to her native shores on Tuesday, the 2d of February. The weather was severely cold, and Dame Nature appeared to have put on her wedding dress for the occasion; yet the vicinity of Buckingham Palace, and the et- the citizens of Alexandria, to the office. tire route thence to the place of embarkation were thronged with persons assembled to testify the interest they felt. The parting with the Queen, at the Palace staircase, was naturally affecting, and, as the cortege drove away, the Princess was observed to be much moved. The party started about noon. It consisted of the Royal couple, Prince Albert, suite of the bride and bridegroom. The re- ing election ception of the Royal pair at Gravesend was of the most enthusiastic character. No such jubilee had ever before been known there --Together they proceeded to Brussels, where they arrived at night, and where a brilliant celebration awaited them. On Thursday the journey was resumed, the party passing through Aix-la-Chapelle, and resting for the night at Cologne. Accounts of concerts, balls and every species of merry-making at this place close the latest intelligence rest ecting the Royal newly-wedded.

NEW GAME.

Godey's Lady's Book has the last new "social game." Here it is: A small piece of stick is lighted at one end and the blaze is blown out, leaving the sparks. It is then passed from one of the company to the next on his right hand, and so on round the circle, each one saying, as he bands it to his neighbor, "Jack's alive." The player who holds the stick when the last spark dies out must consent to have a delicate end of the stick, which is then re-lighted and the game goes on. Should the wearer of the mustache have Jack die a second time on his hands, an imperial, whiskers or exaggerated eyebrows, may be added to his charms. While Jack is in a lively condition, with his sparks in fine, brilliant order, he is passed carelessly from one player to another; but when he shows symptoms of dying it is amusing to see how rapidly be changes hands, for each player is bound to receive him as soon as his neighbor pronounces "Jack's alive."---In case the mustache decorations are objected to, a forfeit may be paid instead by those who hold "Jack dead."
